

What's in My Tummy?
Playbook

What's for Lunch Today?

Outside on the playground, all the animals play! Gym class is outside on this beautiful day.

The bell rings loud—it's time for lunch! Everyone hurries inside to chomp and crunch.

Zip! Snap! Pop!

The animals take off their coats with grumbling tummies, then head to the cafeteria for something yummy.

Ostrich opens his lunchbox and finds CRICKETS, WORMS, and GRAPES to munch!

Imitate a monkey and an ostrich eating!

And what about Monkey? Today, she's having BANANAS, NUTS, and SPIDERS for lunch!

Ostrich sighs and says, "Monkey, I'm tired of my lunch. Could I have some of yours?"

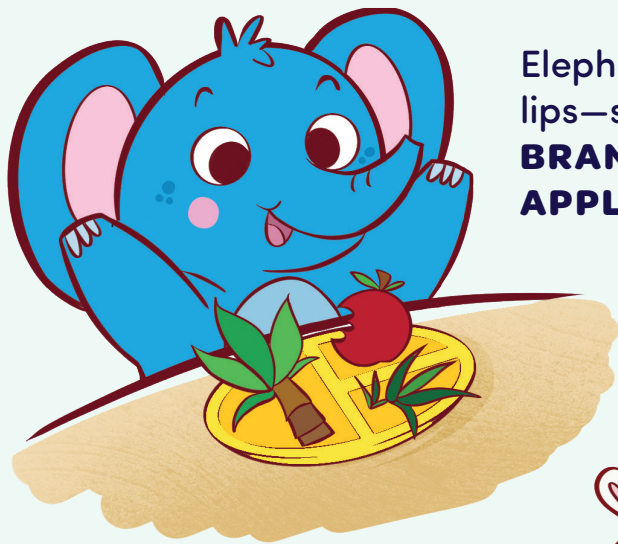

Name something both animals could eat, then swap their blocks.

Monkey replies, "Yes, of course. After all, we're OMNIVORES!"

That means we eat both MEAT and PLANTS—yummy yum yum!"

Elephant licks her lips—she has LEAVES, BRANCHES, and an APPLE to eat!

Imitate an elephant and a zebra eating!

Zebra's hungry!
What will they eat?
Today, it'll be TWIGS, GRASS, and LEAVES!

Elephant exclaims, "I love twigs! Could I have a few?"

Name something both animals could eat, then swap their blocks.

With a smile, Zebra says, "Absolutely, HERBIVORE pal! Eating plants is what we do!"

Lion's feasting on RIBS and
DRUMSTICKS
this afternoon,

Imitate
a crocodile and a lion eating!

while Crocodile has a
CRAB, FISH, and FROG
to snap and chew.

Crocodile shouts, "Lion, I'm a CARNIVORE too!
May I have a bite of your lunch, or maybe a few?"

Lion roars, "Sure, Crocodile, try all these types of delicious meat!"

Name something
both animals could eat,
then swap their blocks.

After eating lunch, the animals are full of energy! Lion says, "Before class starts, let's play a game of frisbee!"

Zip! Snap! Pop!

With their coats on, the animals head outside to play and move their bodies before the rest of the school day!

Do all the fasteners back up and place the blocks back in their original spots.

FREE PLAY

With varied fasteners, textures, colors, and animals to explore, this toy is great for independent play. Encourage little ones to play as they please—they could think up their own game, create imaginary scenarios with the animals, or whatever their bright imagination comes up with!

SHARED READING

Read the included story with your child and encourage them to play an active role! Follow the activity prompts inside the story, try the activities on the right, or come up with your own interactive story time ideas!

PLAY GUIDE

SHARED READING ACTIVITIES

Take turns narrating the story—use silly voices for extra fun!

If your child asks a question during the story, stop and have a conversation about it.

Using the animals as characters, create a whole new story together with your child.

FINE MOTOR & TACTILE ACTIVITIES

Teach your child how to use all the fasteners on the board—they'll be able to see each one clearly and control them well!

Ask your child to touch the fabrics on the board and describe the different textures as they do so.

Compare the fabrics on the board with household objects. For example, you could have your child compare their favorite shirt with the board's fabrics.

